

Reclaiming the Clock—getting more of the right stuff done

It's easy to get busy—email, interruptions, meetings, and clutter can keep us busy and distracted from what's important. Without better systems and habits, “busy” becomes an excuse for missed deadlines, procrastination, needless rushing, and mistakes.

Reclaiming the Clock is an exciting new approach to getting more from your minutes without simply trying to make more lists or do more work. Based on Hugh's book Give Me a Break, this proven model will show you how to create time for planning, improving systems, reconnecting with staff and even creative thinking.

Consistently rated as ‘best of the event’, Reclaiming the Clock is the perfect addition to any conference or staff event.

“This was probably one of the best workshops I have ever attended! I will use this material every day.”
