

Think, Plan, Act –how to excel in the Age of Distraction

It is possible to survive, even excel, in our new Age of Distraction - but only if you change how you Think, Plan, and Act. Based on his best-selling book, Give Me a Break, Hugh Culver's high-energy keynote is perfect for busy people with To-Do lists that never end. Consistently voted as "best of the event", Think, Plan, Act challenges audiences to rethink what it means to be "effective" and how to create real results and a rich life.

Part motivational, part instructional, and part challenging - this content-rich keynote presentation is an exciting experience for any audience. Nurses, CEO's, salespeople, and accountants have all voted with standing ovations to Hugh's Think, Plan, Act.

Will your audience be next?

Learning Points

- THINK - changing your results starts by changing your story (your audience will actually experience this)! This life-changing lesson continues to impact chronic procrastinators, frustrated leaders, and overwhelmed employees.
- PLAN - interruptions are inevitable - poor planning shouldn't be. Learn how to plan like a pilot and work from a Flight Plan that can literally create time.
- ACT - the secret power of habits can improve willpower, resilience, productivity, and results. You will learn the three parts to any habit and how to use them.

This is a high-energy and interactive presentation that will have your audience engaged, laughing, and learning.

A talented facilitator, Hugh creates an atmosphere of dynamic participation, while at the same time keeping delegates entertained with stories that range from the boardroom to endurance running and from Antarctica to golfing at the North Pole.

"...insightful, educational, and entertaining... a perfect closing to end on a high note." – Vik Kail, HR, Bayer CropScience Canada

The One Thing Challenge. Nothing beats results—Hugh's keynotes are completely relevant, practical, and action-oriented. Best of all, delegates will make a 30-day commitment to practice the "One Thing" that will have the greatest impact on their results.

Need a Concurrent Session? Not only is Hugh a dynamic keynote presenter, his exciting, interactive concurrent sessions are always ranked "Best of the Event!" Ask about complementary topics in 90 minute to half-day formats.
